Applicable law and foreign legislation

The servers are located in France and the hosting provider is a company governed by French law. DYONYSOS SASU gives no legal opinion on the possible application of foreign laws, in particular the US Cloud Act: that analysis depends on each buyer's situation and on the structure of the providers, and is a matter for the buyer's legal counsel. The facts above (location, no transfer outside the European Union, list of processors, encryption) are provided to inform it.
